Part Two: Comparison Free
One of the quickest ways to become discontent is to compare yourself to others. Discontentment can be a dangerous thing leading to lots of pain. While, contentment is illusive but attainable!

Scripture: 1 Timothy 6:6-19

Bottom Line: Sowing is better than owing.

Discussion Questions
1. Do you ever find yourself comparing yourself to others when it comes to money and possessions? What emotions does that usually lead to? What are some of the things that cause you to feel most discontent about?

2. Read 1 Timothy 6:6-19. List the key words and themes in this passage. If you had to summarize what is taught here in 1 or 2 sentences what would you say is the main point?

3. Have you ever found yourself in any of the stages of discontentment that are listed? (tempted, trapped, totally ruined) What does that feel like? What are warning signs that you are entering one of these stages?

4. How would you define godliness with contentment?

5. If discontentment is so dangerous, how can you build habits that cause you to be more content?

6. Are you working on the challenge to sell something and give away the profits to someone in need? What have been the obstacles for you in this challenge? Do you have a story to share about what you were able to sell and where you chose to donate the money?

Moving Forward
Encourage one another in whatever phase of your life you are in, to discuss at least one habit that you can implement in your dealing with money to invest in others rather than spending on yourself.
